B I O G R A P H Y

Miguel Castejón was born in Madrid in 1991. He began his musical studies at the age of 7, training over time with renowned national and international musicians and acquiring a solid musical education until he graduated.

He is currently established as one of the most sought-after saxophonists on the national scene, offering a powerful and energetic show that, fused with electronic music, is in constant vibration with the public.

He has taken his show to the best and most exclusive places in this country, getting regular residencies in several of them and having shared the booth and stage with several artists of national and international renown (DJ Nano, Nalaya Brown, Mestiza, &Me, Indira Paganotto, Andree Vicenzo, Fran Arés, Alev Tav, etc...)

Places such as: France, Portugal, Ibiza, Madrid, Marbella, Barcelona, Girona, Alicante, Valencia, Lanzarote, Seville, Malaga, Granada, Bilbao, Cádiz, San Sebastián, La Coruña, among many others.

He was in charge of performing the opening show of the 2024 Queen's Cup Football Final at the La Romareda stadium in front of 33,000 spectators and with Her Majesty Queen Letizia presiding over the match, which was highly praised by the media and critics in general.

He is the saxophonist who represents the Ron Brugal brand on its annual tour of many of the best nightclubs throughout Spain.

He has worked as an artist for a multitude of renowned national and international brands such as: La casa de Papel, Maserati, Youtube, Grupo Inditex, L'oreal, Bodegas Bardadillo, Masters London Gyn, Vodka Mua, XQ Spirits premium Gyn, among others.

In the production field, he has collaborated with many electronic music producers, spending several months on various lists within the Beatport Top 100.

He has collaborated with artists from the urban genre such as Morad, among others.

FINAL COPA DE LA REINA

Un palco de lujo en La Romareda para la final de la Copa de la Reina

- Ambiente de partido grande por parte de las dos aficiones en La Romareda para presenciar la final con la reina Letizia presidiendo el encuentro
- El himno de España fue recibido con pitos entre la afición del Barcelona y la Real Sociedad

Cuando las jugadoras del FC Barcelona saltaron al campo, la más ovacinada fue sin duda Sandra Paños, ya que la guardameta dirá adiós a la entidad culé el próximo día 30 de junio. Antes de comenzar el partido, el saxofonista Miguel Castejón puso en pie a la afición para comenzar a calentar motores para lo que estaba a punto de empezar.
